2021

Agreement on Development of Academic Cooperation Between
The University of Oran 1 (Algeria)
and
The University of Bamberg (Germany)

In furtherance of their mutual interests in the fields of education and research and as a contribution to increased international cooperation the University of Oran 1 and the University of Bamberg agree to establish a cooperation between two educational institutions (parties of the Agreement) directed at expansion of potential of their activities in the sphere of research and education, in the study of language, culture, international relations, foreign policy and intercultural communication.

Article 1

The parties should cooperate in the exchange of educational and methodological issues and research in the fields of mutual interests.

Article 2

The parties should exchange teachers and researchers to improve their scientific and professional qualification and take part in seminars and other professional activities.

Article 3

Up to 3 students from each university can be exchanged during each academic year.

Both parties should encourage students to spend periods of time in the host university to study languages and other disciplines for up to two semesters. Students will be exempt from registration and accomodation fees in the host university. The sending University covers the cost of plane ticket for the exchanged Students.

Article 4

The parties should promote short courses, joint research projects and activities in teaching foreign languages in fields of mutual interests.

Article 5

The Agreement will be effective after the full competent authorization of both countries from the date of signature for a period of 5 years. It can be terminated by either side with a six month notice towards the end of the agreement.

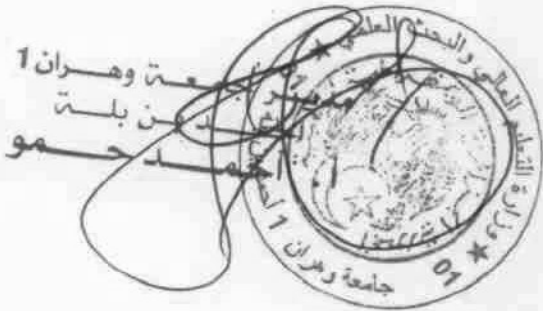

The termination of this Agreement cannot prevent students, teachers and researchers, working in the frame of the agreement to continue and finish their work.
